Col. Anderson in Frankfort. Col. Anderson, the distinguished hero of Fort Sumter, will be in Louisville to-day, and will probably visit Frankfort on Monday, to see his relatives in this vicinity.

Our gallant city should at once take steps to give him a reception worthy of his fame, and of our high appreciation of his gallant service in defense of the flag of his country.

Our people will see that this matter is attended to.

Richard T. Jacob, Esq.—By a card in the Louisville Journal of Friday, we learn that the voters of Oldham county will have the privilege of voting for this staunch Unionist for reelection. RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. WHITAKER asked leave to introduce a preamble and a series of resolutions in relation to the secession of South Carolina and other States, that they might be ordered to be printed; granted.

They were read for information, and are as follows, viz:

WHEREAS, On the 20th day of December last, a Convention, in the State of South Carolina, passed an ordinance of secession, at a time when all the departments of the Government were under the control of those opposed to the present Administration; proceeded to throw off the authority of the Constitution, and of the Government of the United States; and to wage war against it, by overthrowing its courts; by seizing its Custom-houses and revenues; and by assuming and exercising the right to regulate and tax foreign and inter-State commerce; by taking forcible possession of its arsenals; by levying war taxes, and mustering troops; by taking possession, with arms of force, of undefended national forts; by planting batteries around, and regularly investing Sumter, garrisoned by troops of the nation, under command of an officer of the Government, and a loyal citizen of this State; by cutting off the supplies of the garrison; and finally, by bombarding the fort, hanging down its flag, and taking prisoner its defenders.

And, Whereas, these unconstitutional and revolutionary acts were followed and participated in by Conventions, called and elected by predominant portions of the people of other States; frequently approved by resolutions of the Government, and forcible seizure and spoliation of its ports, property, on land and sea; its customs and revenues, and consolidated and rendered formidable by revolutionary, State, and Confederate Governments, assuming without waiting for the consent of the people.

And, Whereas, these responsible and fatal measures were precipitated, without consultation or co-operation with other States of this Union, and particularly Kentucky—always suffering more than them all under the grievances assigned for these acts, and to suffer still more than all the consequences of revolutionary but, in every instance, the ruling power in each seceding State, claiming and exercising the right of separate action, regardless of the interests, honor, and sacred rights of the other States, or the binding force of the Federal compact, and sometimes (as in Virginia) in violation of the solemn Legislative act, and the will of the people.

And, Whereas, During the progress of these extraordinary and warlike proceedings, the Federal Government, and the several States now loyal to the Union, refrained from aggression and war, and abstained from the use of force, and planted no batteries; mustered no troops; in arms, until the supplies of its feeble garrison were cut off, its fort bombarded, its soldiers taken prisoner, and its flag hauled down, and supplanted by a banner unknown to the Constitution and history of the Republic, and its capital, bearing the name of Washington, threatened with assault, capture and pillage.

And, Whereas, The people of Kentucky, true to the memory and spirit of their ancestors—abounding in a common love to the people of all the free and equal States, and placing a high and inalienable value upon that liberty and union which was, and is, their inalienable inheritance and right—deplored and condemned these revolutionary proceedings in the beginning, during their progress, and now more and more deplore and condemn them, and cannot any longer, without disregard to their honor, their interests, their rights, and their very liberty and safety, remain silent and quiescent; therefore,

We, the Representatives of the People of the State of Kentucky, Declare that the doctrine of secession finds no warrant in the Constitution; that the revolutionary proceedings against the Government, in an engine of oppression, for the maintenance of liberty exists and is sacred; that no sufficient cause for revolution on the part of the people have taken up arms against the Government existed, nor does it exist; and it is, therefore, their duty to lay down their arms; cease to aggress upon the Government, and to present their rights in the Union and under the Constitution; that the people of this State have no heart for this war, and will continue, as heretofore, by peaceful discussion and compromise, to labor for their own rights and security; for the cessation of hostilities between the Government and its citizens; and for the restoration and perpetuity of the Union; but that the Union of the States, and the fraternity of their people, is a necessity to Kentucky, for all her interests, all her hopes, all her liberties, are bound up in it; if all her history and traditions, all the virtue, all the intelligence, all the patriotism of all her generations are not delusions or falsehoods. Therefore,

We further declare, That our interests and duty are with the Union and the Government of our country, and with the enemies of both, and, forced by the violence and injustice of those in arms against us, while we will never consent to the overthrow of the Constitutional rights of the people of any of the States, we will omit no effort in defense of ourselves and our fellow-countrymen, within or without the seceded States, as long as the Government shall act in defense of its capital, the honor of its flag, and its constitutional functions.

Mr. IRVAN offered the following as a substitute, viz:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That we cordially approve of the patriotic course of our Executive, in refusing to comply with the requisition made upon him by Abraham Lincoln, for Kentucky's quota of soldiers, to wage war upon Southern brethren.

Resolved, That there is no authority in the Constitution of the United States to coerce a State—the framers of that instrument having expressly refused to grant any such provision therein.

Resolved, That every consideration of interest, of honor, and of duty, impels us to unite our forces with our Sister Southern States, that an entire sympathy with them and for them, that their cause is our cause—their destiny shall be our destiny.

Resolved, That our State ought immediately to put in a position of defense, and for that purpose this General Assembly should pass a law, authorizing sufficient amount of money to arm our citizens thoroughly.

Resolved, That a Convention of the people ought to be called at the earliest practicable day, to determine what position Kentucky will occupy in the present crisis of our national affairs.

Mr. FISK offered an amendment to the substitute, as follows, viz:

Whereas, There exists a civil war between the National Government and the seceded States, which Kentucky deeply deplores—a war she has no voice in creating, and in which she has hitherto refused to take a part, and she now refuses, being a part of the National Government, in the enjoyment of its benefits—such as mail facilities, national hospitals, Federal courts, protection at home and abroad, a garrison paid out of the national treasury, into which she is paying revenue, and having a representation in Congress—Kentucky ought at least to remain neutral till the end of the controversy, neither hindering the National Government, nor favoring the seceded States, nor furnishing arms, as a State, to either of the belligerents, and asking aid from either to maintain her position, she will all the time be ready and anxious to mediate between the belligerents, and will be profoundly happy should she be able to reconcile the contending parties, and avert the shedding of fraternal blood by extraneous hands.

With this position Kentucky is willing to go before the civilized world, and let her conduct pass into history, and await the candid and calm judgment of future and disinterested generations. Being connected with the seceded States geographically, and having the same domestic institutions, she is unwilling to take up arms against them. Being attached to the National Government under which she has always lived and greatly prospered, and having no cause for war against it, she cannot take up arms to overthrow it. Having, in good faith, taken this position, she asks the belligerents to respect it. Therefore,

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That Kentucky will not sever her connection with the National Government, nor will she take up arms for either of the belligerents, but will still and loyally for the one purpose of preserving tranquility and peace within her own borders.

Resolved, That Kentucky now tenders, and to the end of the war, all the time will tender herself as mediator, and that she will constantly be ready to do so in her power to bring about a just and honorable peace.

Resolved, That the Governor be directed to transmit a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to the Presidents of the United States and of the seceded States, and to the Governor of each of the thirty G. States.

Mr. ANDREWS moved that they all be printed, and referred to the committee on Federal Relations.

Mr. GROVER moved that the committee be instructed to report on Monday at 10 o'clock.

The previous question was ordered.

Mr. DELAVEN moved an adjournment, carried—yeas, 20, nays, 14.

It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of incalculable service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

SCHROEDER AND SCHROEDER'S COMPLAINTS, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BOILS, TUBERCLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SCURF, AND SYMPHYLITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR THE DORLANDER, DEBRILITY, DYSPNOEA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, RING, OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which foster in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudinal cases, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and necrotic sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruption, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your fellowers will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, by cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this purgative of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later some thing must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, many of which, being alone have not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative property at all. It is, in fact, a bitter and painful disappointment, and has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
has won for itself such a reputation for the cure of every variety of Hoarseness and Cough, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to repeat the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not add more than assure the people its quality is kept up. So long as it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

CHILDREN'S TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP, FOR CHILDREN'S TEETHING,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation, and allaying ALL PAIN, and promoting action on the bowels, and regulating the Stomach. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and comfort and health to your infants.

We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its singular effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know" after ten years' experience and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and excruciating relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER-FAILING SUCCESS.

THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the bowels, and Wind Colic, and excessive action, which, if not speedily remedied, and in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY for the world in ALL cases of DYSENTERY and DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause.

We would say to every mother who has an infant suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do as let your physician, or the principles of others, state to your suffering child, and the relief that will be SURE, YES, ABSOLUTELY SURE, to follow this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. Some genuine unless the face simile of CUTLER & PIERSON, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggist throughout the world.
